

Reunion Weekend Schedule

FRIDAY, JUNE 1

- 8:30 a.m.  Maroon Club Golf Outing | Silver Spring Country Club
- 11 a.m.–3 p.m. Campus Tours | leaving on the hour
- 11:15 a.m.  Tour of the Chateau Chavaniac | Meet at Pfenning Alumni Center (space limited)
Tour the Norman-French-style chateau, built in 1932 by the late Allan P. Kirby '15, which was modeled after and named for the birthplace of the Marquis de Lafayette.
- 12–1 p.m. Alumni Association Open Lunch | Clay Ketchum Room, Marquis Hall
- 1 p.m. Rockwell Integrated Sciences Center–Hard Hat Tour
Acopian Engineering Center, meet in the lobby
On May 11, 2017, Lafayette broke ground on the 100,000+-square-foot future home of the Lafayette biology, computer science, and environmental science departments, the Bradbury Dyer III '64 Center for Innovation and Entrepreneurship, the Daniel and Heidi Hanson '91 Center for Inclusive STEM Education, and more. This is your opportunity to see the building's construction in progress and experience what will be the future of integrated sciences at Lafayette together with Michael Butler, professor of biology.
- 1–3 p.m.  Easton Cemetery Tour | Easton Cemetery
Founded in 1849 and now a National Historic Landmark, Easton Cemetery is one of the earliest and best surviving examples of a 19th century garden cemetery. Enjoy a guided tour along curving pathways and rolling hillsides and discover the history behind the notable people who helped shape Lafayette College and the community.
- 2–3 p.m. Campus Landscape Tour | Skillman Steps
Walk through our beautiful campus and learn about the history and unique qualities of some of the more than 120 species of plants and trees.
- 3:30 p.m. Arts Campus Tour | Meet shuttle at Williams Center of the Arts
Join Jennifer Kelly, director of the arts, to see how Lafayette has transformed the North Third Street gateway with the Williams Visual Arts Building, Ahart Family Arts Plaza, 248 Building and Buck Hall and to learn more about the Arts at Lafayette.
- 3:30–5 p.m. Simon Room Exhibit Open House | Skillman Library
Historic photographs and records documenting Lafayette's efforts to craft a diverse student population from its founding to the present.
- 4–5 p.m. 50-Plus Club Garden Reception | President's House
- 5 p.m. Sabbath Service | Hillel House, 524 Clinton Terrace
- 5 p.m.  Alumni Association Reception | Marquis Hall Lawn

7:30–9:30 p.m.

Where Does Your Food Come From? | Nurture Nature Center

Join Ben Cohen, professor of engineering, for an evening of live and lively storytelling about the history of food. From beer, sugar and bread to breakfast cereal, canned goods and something called ‘fluid meat,’ 13 writers talk about the century-old origins of modern food.

8 p.m.

Lafayette Alumni Choir (LAC) and Step-singing at Pardee Hall | The Quad

Alumni are invited to continue the tradition begun more than a century ago when students gathered on the steps of Pardee Hall to sing in harmony, inspiring Walter C. Stier, Class of 1884, to pen the words of the Alma Mater: “We’ll gather by the twilight’s glow/In front of old Pardee” along with the Lafayette Alumni Choir (formerly The Graduates). LAC is comprised of alumni from the 1960s to the 2010s and is in its current incarnation for four years.

8:30 p.m.

Film Screening: James Beard: America’s First Foodie

Limburg Theater, Farinon College Center

Join producer Kathleen Squires ’88 for a screening of her documentary on James Beard. Through a recorded and printed oral history crafted by Beard himself, archival footage, and interviews, the documentary weaves the history of American cooking and gastronomy with the story of its Founding Father and explores how the food world has evolved since his death.

9 p.m.

Lafayette (and More) Trivia | Snack Bar, Farinon College Center

Gather a team and test your Lafayette (and beyond) knowledge at a one-of-a-kind alumni trivia night! Prizes given out to the highest scoring team.

2 p.m.

Reunion College: Finding Our Way in a Post-Truth Era

Gendebien Room, Skillman Library

In an era of filter bubbles, partisan journalism, and social media, how can we find reliable and balanced sources of information? Are attempts to undermine trust in the news media a form of censorship? The Lafayette Libraries has invited four faculty members—Il Hyun Cho (government and law), Jon Dahl (computer science), and Joe Shieber (philosophy)—to examine questions surrounding truth in the news from their different disciplinary perspectives. Please join us for a conversation similar to one students had in February 2018 that we hope will allow us to think more deeply about how we find and consume news, and how changes in news media affect our lives and our society.

2:30–3:30 p.m.

PRIDE Network Reception | Skillman Cafe

3–5 p.m.

Art Study Center Open House | Williams Center for the Arts

Preview the new Art Study Center at the Williams Center for the Arts with Michiko Okaya, director of Lafayette art galleries. Paintings previously hidden—such as the College's collection of American history paintings, which have rarely been on display—can be seen on painting racks through a glass wall that separates a new study space from Lafayette's new art storage area.

3 p.m.

Reunion College: Emotional Transition of the Retirement Process
