

Reunion Weekend Schedule

FRIDAY, JUNE 7

- 8:30 a.m.  Maroon Club Golf Outing | Steel Club
- 1–3 p.m. Campus Tours | Leaving on the hour from Pfenning Alumni Center
- Noon–1 p.m. Alumni Association Open Lunch | Clay Ketchum Room, Marquis Hall
- 1 p.m.  Tour of Chateau Chavaniac | Meet at Pfenning Alumni Center (space limited)
Tour the Norman French-style chateau, built in 1932 by the late Allan P. Kirby 1915, which was modeled after and named for the birthplace of the Marquis de Lafayette.
- 1–3 p.m. Rockwell Integrated Sciences Center–Hard Hat Tour | Anderson Courtyard
Leaves on the hour. Rockwell Integrated Sciences Center, 100,000+-square-foot home of Lafayette biology, computer science, and environmental science departments, Bradbury Dyer III '64 Center for Innovation and Entrepreneurship, Daniel and Heidi Hanson '91 Center for Inclusive STEM Education, and more, officially opens this September. This is your opportunity to tour the building as finishing touches are implemented and experience what will be the future of integrated sciences at Lafayette.
- 2–3 p.m. Reunion College Session: Lafayette 101: Why We Celebrate the Marquis!
Gendebien Room, Skillman Library
Who was the Marquis de Lafayette and why was Lafayette College named after him? Join alumnus and member of the American Friends of Lafayette John Becica '69 for an illustrated lecture on America's favorite fighting Frenchman
- 2–3 p.m. Campus Landscape Tour | Meet on the steps of Farinon College Center
Walk through our beautiful campus and learn about the history and unique qualities of some of the more than 120 species of plants and trees.
- 3 p.m. Campus Architecture Tour | Meet at Farinon College Center
Join Mary Wilford-Hunt for a walking tour of Lafayette's rich and varied architectural history. Stroll across campus and discuss the wide-ranging architectural styles of noteworthy buildings on campus, and moments in history that influenced their design.
- 3:30–4:30 p.m. Reunion College Session: Pre-tirement and Beyond: Reinventing Your Professional Identity in Retirement, Margie Cherry, Gateway Career Center
Gendebien Room, Skillman Library
Are you recently retired or contemplating the idea of retirement? Lucky you! But what does the new reality of retirement look like? Retirement may not mean the end of your professional life, but rather an opportunity to reinvent your professional identity as a more personally crafted identity. We call this preparation phase "pre-tirement."
- 3:30 p.m.  Arts Campus Tour | Meet shuttle at Williams Center of the Arts
Join Michiko Okaya, director of Lafayette art galleries, to see how Lafayette has transformed the North Third Street gateway with the Williams Visual Arts Building, Ahart Family Arts Plaza, 248 Building, and Buck Hall before returning to Williams Center for the Arts and visiting the new Kirby Art Study Center.

2 p.m.

Reunion College: Colorful Animals in a Challenging World

Gendebien Room, Skillman Library

While nature might be red in tooth and claw, it is also filled with orange hairs, green scales, and blue feathers. This variation in animal coloration manifests as impressive levels of camouflage, ostentatious demands for attention, and everything in between. So why do animals produce such a range of colors, and how can they actually achieve this variation in coloration? In this talk, Mike Butler (biology) will explore some of the animal kingdom's gaudiest displays, and discuss the diversity of mechanisms that animals use to produce colorful structures.

3–5 p.m.

Kirby Art Study Center Open House | Williams Center for the Arts

Visit the new Art Study Center at Williams Center for the Arts with Michiko Okaya, director of Lafayette art galleries. Paintings previously hidden—such as the College's collection of American history paintings, which have rarely been on display—can be seen on painting racks through a glass wall that separates a new study space from Lafayette's new art storage area.

3 p.m.

Reunion College: After Class with Rosie | Gendebien Room, Skillman Library

Hard. Funny. Kind. High expectations. On time. No hats. Can you guess whose class this describes? After 39 years at Lafayette, Rosie Bukics (economics) still loves to come to work every day, and she looks forward to reconnecting with former students, meeting alumni, and talking about Lafayette then, now, and in the future.

3:30 p.m.

Campus Geology Tour | Meet at Skillman Library steps

Reunion is about going back in time. How about WAY back in time – geologic time! Join Professor Dave Sunderlin for a walk into the deep history beneath Lafayette.

4–5 p.m.

PRIDE Network and Queer Archives Project Celebration

Lafayette Skillman Café

Join the PRIDE Network for a celebration of the Queer Archives Project and Lafayette's Queer History. The Queer Archives Project at Lafayette College is an interdisciplinary initiative designed to illuminate Lafayette's Queer history, advance teaching, learning, and research in the area of Queer Studies, and promote institutional transformation.
